THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT AND HOW

At Hair by Mark Dancer we take privacy seriously and only use the information we collect to provide our services. We do not share or sell the information we collect for any other purpose than providing the best possible service for our clients. At any time, you may request a copy of information we have recorded about you. You may also request we remove all identifiable information with respect to yourself. As a matter of course, we will delete your identifiable information if you have not undertaken business with us after 2 years.

For clarity, listed are the business services we provide and how each service uses the information we collect.

Hair services:

We request the minimum level of personally identifying information to run our business effectively. This is data you provide us directly, for example, your name and mobile number. We will never obtain information about you indirectly from sources outside our business. We consider you have provided consent for us to store personally identifying information and information about your services based on your receiving services from us.

Appointment reminders:

We will contact you via SMS to remind you of upcoming appointments. We consider you having made the appointment as consent to undertake this activity, but if you want, you may opt-out at any time.

HYPER-LINKS

You may come across hyper-links on this site. These hyper-links may take you to sites operated by other organisations which you agree we are not responsible for. When preparing our website we have taken every care possible. However, we have no control over any of the information you can access via other web sites and, in particular, we are not responsible for the privacy policies adopted by such other websites. Therefore, no mention of any organisation, company or individual to which our web site is linked shall imply any approval or warranty as to the standing and capability of any such organisations, company or individual on the part of Hair by Mark Dancer.
